

Blue Goose Alliance Bulletin

#48- Aug. 16, 2006

The Blue Goose Alliance announces the opening of its redesigned and updated website (<http://www.bluegoosealliance.org>)

For several years the Alliance has maintained a web presence on the Internet as its primary interface with the public. Following the resignation of its Vice President for Communications last year, a Communications Committee was appointed by the President and charged with analyzing the overall Alliance's communication needs. The committee recommended seeking professional design and development to enhance and maintain its website.

Concurrently, the Alliance sought to honor the life of Danny Redfearn, one of its founding members and author of its tag line: NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGES....WHERE THE EXTRAORDINARY IS EVERY DAY! The Danny Redfearn Memorial Fund was established to enhance and actively manage the Blue Goose Alliance website.

A contract was awarded earlier this year and the results are now up and running. We invite you to stop in, look around, see what's new, and to offer any feedback or comments you might have. While we are open for business, we consider the new website a continuing work in progress and will be constantly working to improve it. So, we not only hope you will stop by for a visit, but in fact make frequent visits to stay current with Alliance activities.
